AMILO Pi 2530 Perform at your peak

Issue January 2008

Version 2

Pages 3

The AMILO Pi 2530 is an excellent all-round notebook, combining lots of performance and mobility. Why not retreat to the garden to answer your mails or watch the latest DVD on your balcony in the warm summer evening? There is no need to worry about wall sockets as the battery runs for up to 2:30 hours.

You miss your best friend that is working abroad since a while? The integrated webcam and the two built in microphones turn the AMILO Pi 2530 into your new video telephone. Now you can talk to your best friend, tell him all about your really cool new laptop and what have happened last weekend in your town.

The AMILO Pi 2530 is the perfect choice for performance oriented users who need an all-round notebook at an affordable cost.
